

Quotes and Citing Integration Practice

Name: _____

YOU NEED: Citing guidelines (website under READINGS→ Project resources)
Poem: "The Pig" by Roald Dahl (website under READINGS → Poems)

Assignment:

Create a well-written, error-free paragraph(s) that includes one of each of the integration methods outlined on the citing guidelines reference page handed out in class. Each quote must be cited correctly with proper line number and use proper punctuation.

1. Full sentence: "Quote" (Dahl 23). **Author's last name and line number**
2. Quoted "phrase within a" sentence (Author 34).
3. Introductory or explanatory phrase, "Quote" (Author 15).
4. Using an ellipsis "Quote...quote" (Author 77).
5. Substituting or changing a word "with[in] the quote" (Author 45).

Remember:

**Use a forward slash (/) to indicate a break in the line.

**Use single quotes to indicate a speaker within a quote: "the boy exclaims, 'No!'" (line 10)

TOPIC: Discuss the author's message about life that is presented in the poem (mini theme analysis)

"The Pig" by Roald Dahl

In England once there lived a big
And wonderfully clever pig.
To everybody it was plain
That Piggy had a massive brain.
He worked out sums inside his head,
There was no book he hadn't read.
He knew what made an airplane fly,
He knew how engines worked and why.
He knew all this, but in the end
One question drove him round the bend:
He simply couldn't puzzle out
What LIFE was really all about.
What was the reason for his birth?
Why was he placed upon this earth?
His giant brain went round and round.
Alas, no answer could be found.
Till suddenly one wondrous night.
All in a flash he saw the light.
He jumped up like a ballet dancer
And yelled, "By gum, I've got the answer!"
"They want my bacon slice by slice
"To sell at a tremendous price!
"They want my tender juicy chops
"To put in all the butcher's shops!
"They want my pork to make a roast
"And that's the part'll cost the most!

"They want my sausages in strings!
"They even want my chitterlings!
"The butcher's shop! The carving knife!
"That is the reason for my life!"
Such thoughts as these are not designed
To give a pig great piece of mind.
Next morning, in comes Farmer Bland,
A pail of pigswill in his hand,
And piggy with a mighty roar,
Bashes the farmer to the floor...
Now comes the rather grizzly bit
So let's not make too much of it,
Except that you must understand
That Piggy did eat Farmer Bland,
He ate him up from head to toe,
Chewing the pieces nice and slow.
It took an hour to reach the feet,
Because there was so much to eat,
And when he finished, Pig, of course,
Felt absolutely no remorse.
Slowly he scratched his brainy head
And with a little smile he said,
"I had a fairly powerful hunch
"That he might have me for his lunch.
"And so, because I feared the worst,
"I thought I'd better eat him first."
