

Researched Presentation

In your presentation, you will summarize your research with the intent to inform your audience. Your audience is your classmates and teachers. Your presentation will flow like a connected river of thoughts.

PROPER PLANNING PREVENTS POOR PERFORMANCE

Presentation will not exceed 5 minutes

Presentation

1. Topic of your research.
2. Why an interest in this topic
3. The thesis (your position on this topic)
4. The areas of support for your thesis
5. Counter claim
6. Interesting information

Personal pronouns are okay in this presentation

Audience

- Providing responses to thoughtful questions
- Providing facts to challenging statements
- Turn in paper with each speaker's name, topic, and a question at end of each period

Possible presentation outline:

Introduce self

Hook (interesting information or fact; catch audience off-guard #6) I was drawn to this topic because (interest #1, #2)

My research led me to (thesis #3, #4)

I found that (#5)

(30 seconds for audience to write a question) Ask if there are any questions